DRINKS & FOOD

The Tierney brothers PJ and Paul had been running successful pubs in the UK, Ireland, and Netherlands when they decided to open their first "Tierney's" in Haarlem in 2009. They started in a small pub near the main square, but as locals and tourists began to discover it, demand for their tasty pub grub increased rapidly. The brothers responded by moving to a bigger venue with its own kitchen. As they had expected, Haarlem was the perfect location for an authentic Irish pub, and they decided to expand further. The brothers set their sights on opening a new location in the oldest city in the Netherlands, Nijmegen, with its mix of youthful energy and historic charm. In all of their pubs, the brothers pride themselves on offering authentic Irish hospitality and entertainment, with live music, weekly pub quizzes, and other forms of fun for all their guests to enjoy.
